

MARYLAND'S WORKING WATERFRONTS EXCHANGE

Governor's Hall at Sailwinds Park
200 Byrne Street, Cambridge, MD
June 18, 2015

AGENDA

- 9:30 a.m. Registration / Coffee and refreshments
- 10:00 a.m. Welcome to Cambridge
City Commissioner Frank Cooke
- 10:15 a.m. Maryland Working Waterfronts Program
Dave Goshorn, DNR Assistant Secretary for Aquatic Resources
Nicole Carlozo & Chris Cortina, DNR Chesapeake and Coastal Service
- 10:30 a.m. Working Waterfront Communities Video
- 10:45 a.m. Building a Framework for Sustainable Working Waterfronts: Cambridge, Maryland, A Case Study
Brent McCloskey & Naomi Soon Young, University of Maryland Environmental Finance Center
- 11:30 a.m. LUNCH / Information Sharing and Networking EXPO
Multiple organizations and businesses will staff tables to distribute resources, answer questions, make connections, and discuss working waterfronts needs and opportunities.
- 12:45 p.m. Watermen Heritage Tours: Working to sustain our cultural heritage
Joanna Ogburn, Chesapeake Conservancy
- 1:15 p.m. Maine's Working Waterfront Stories
Nick Battista, Island Institute
- 1:45 p.m. A Working Waterfronts Plan for Virginia
Beth Polak, Virginia CZM & Don McCann, Virginia Institute of Marine Science
- 2:15 p.m. Smith Island Community Visioning Process: A Vision for how Smith Island will look, feel and thrive in coming decades
Catherine Morris, Consensus Building Institute, Nate Kelly, Horsley Witten Group & Eddie Somers, President of Smith Island United
- 2:45 p.m. Shellfish Aquaculture Panel
Karl Roscher, MD DNR, Bobby Leonard, Tred Avon Treats & Johnny Shockley, Hoopers Island Oyster Aquaculture Company
- 3:15 p.m. Q&A / Discussion and Survey
- 3:30 – 5:30 p.m. Tour and Reception at Richardson Maritime Complex
Jane Devlin, Richardson Museum